

American Society of Civil Engineers
Kansas City Section, Geotechnical Committee
and
The Association of Environmental and Engineering Geologists
Kansas City-Omaha Section
and
University of Missouri Kansas City (UMKC)
(Department of Geosciences and Civil Engineering)
In cooperation with Baroid

Present the following clinic:

Drilling Fluids for Geotechnical Applications

May 29, 2009

This full day clinic will feature a discussion on basin mud rotary for drilling in various materials, bentonites and polymers, grouting, and a field demonstration for mixing, solids control, and a desander demonstration.

Place: Black & Veatch; 11401 Lamar Avenue, Overland Park, KS 66211

Time:

8:00 a.m.	Introduction
8:30 a.m.	Presentation & Discussion
11:30 a.m.	Lunch (provided)
1:00 p.m.	Field Demonstration
4:30 p.m.	Adjourn

Cost: $25.00/per person

Reservations: Contact Andrea Prince with URS at (913) 344-1108 or andrea_prince@urscorp.com by Monday, May 25, 2009.

Eligible for 4 Professional Development Hours (PDH) for attending

